Foreword

This book was designed to help the students remember and to keep them from forgetting our senior year. A year which began in September of 1971 and ended in June of 1972. In four quarters of all those cycles of seven days of the twenty mods and nobody is sure of how many different schedules there must be some memories for everyone.

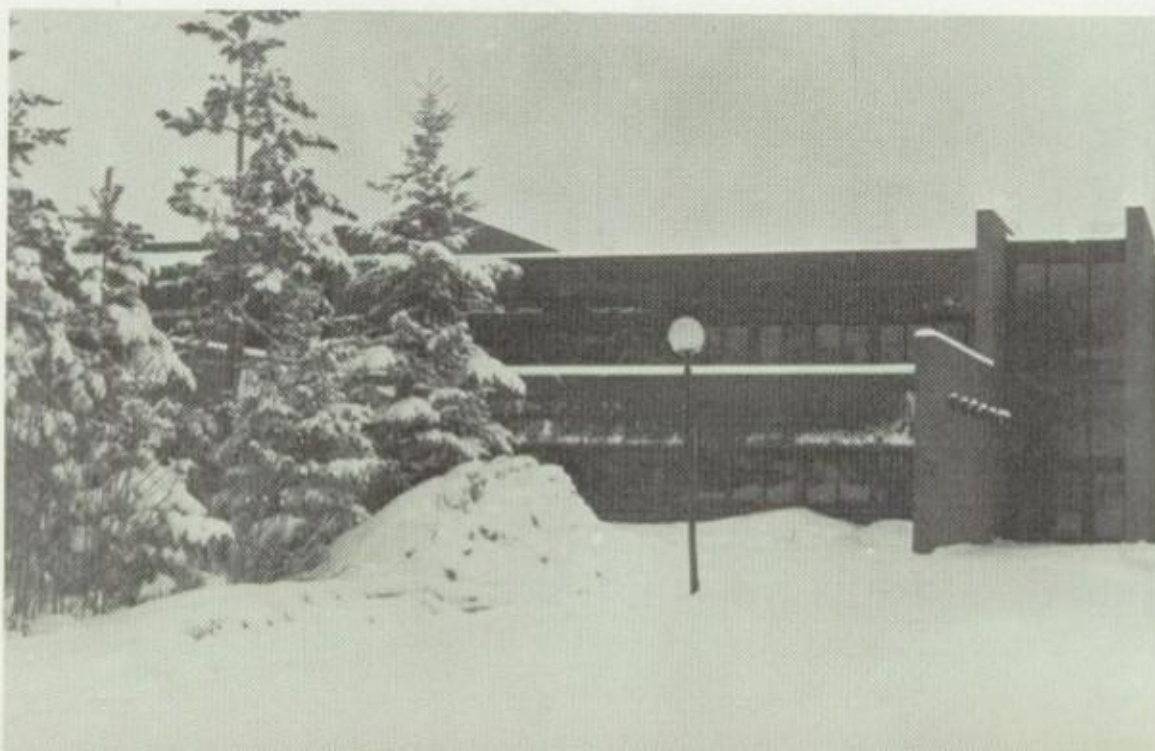

Each page contains memories, more good than bad, of the school year. Many unforgettable moments were captured, like the Super-Bowl trophy, the Sno-Ball and commencement exercises.

The class of '72 was proud to be part of these memories and to be associated with Cloquet Senior High School. We will take memories of the juniors, the sophomores, and the faculty with us when we leave, and we hope that we will leave memories behind, as well.

Dedication

The Class of '72 grants its greatest honor to Mr. Zane Gray by dedicating the 1971-1972 edition of the White Pine to him. He has shown unending enthusiasm and success with the marching band, pep band, stage band, and the majorettes. Under his direction, the band had maintained its standards of musicianship. Although he worked hard to put the marching band back in a place of prominence at CHS, it is also obvious that Mr. Gray marches to the beat of a different drummer. Mr. Gray's ambition is apparent through the formation of pom-pom girls and flag bearers.

Mr. Gray is admired greatly by all the students of CHS not only for being urbane, but for holding a record number of pretzel sticks in his mouth at one time. The out of town games have had more spirit with the presence of the pep band. Although we remember his concerts, our best memories of his enthusiasm and support of the team are second to none. Even the referees remember him.

Make a wish!

Big Band Leader

Mr. Zane Gray

Hey, Uncle Zane...

We dream a thousand dreams

And many come true;

We are the Class of '72

THIS

Our book of dreams

has been made to remind us of the good times

And in it

each of us will find

some corner

Where his special dream was at one of the

Happiest

Saddest

Most trying times there is.

You

special, unique, fragile, fearful, tender, lost

sparkling ruby emerald jewel, rainbow splendor

person

You

made '72 what it was

and no class will be the same again.

Remember the energy,

the spirit we brought—

How we created reality from daydreams?

Sports,

Plays,

Life—

How great it all was.

And it was our class,

We

the many faceted individuals that did it.

Remember these scenes?

You were part of this, one of these people, these special faces that made up the Class of '72.

An athlete ran through empty halls
While down by the gym cheerleaders called to imaginary crowds.

A quiet debate meeting somewhere else,
And a play book on an empty stage.

Artist,

Poet

Craftsman

Musician

Dreamer

Shy

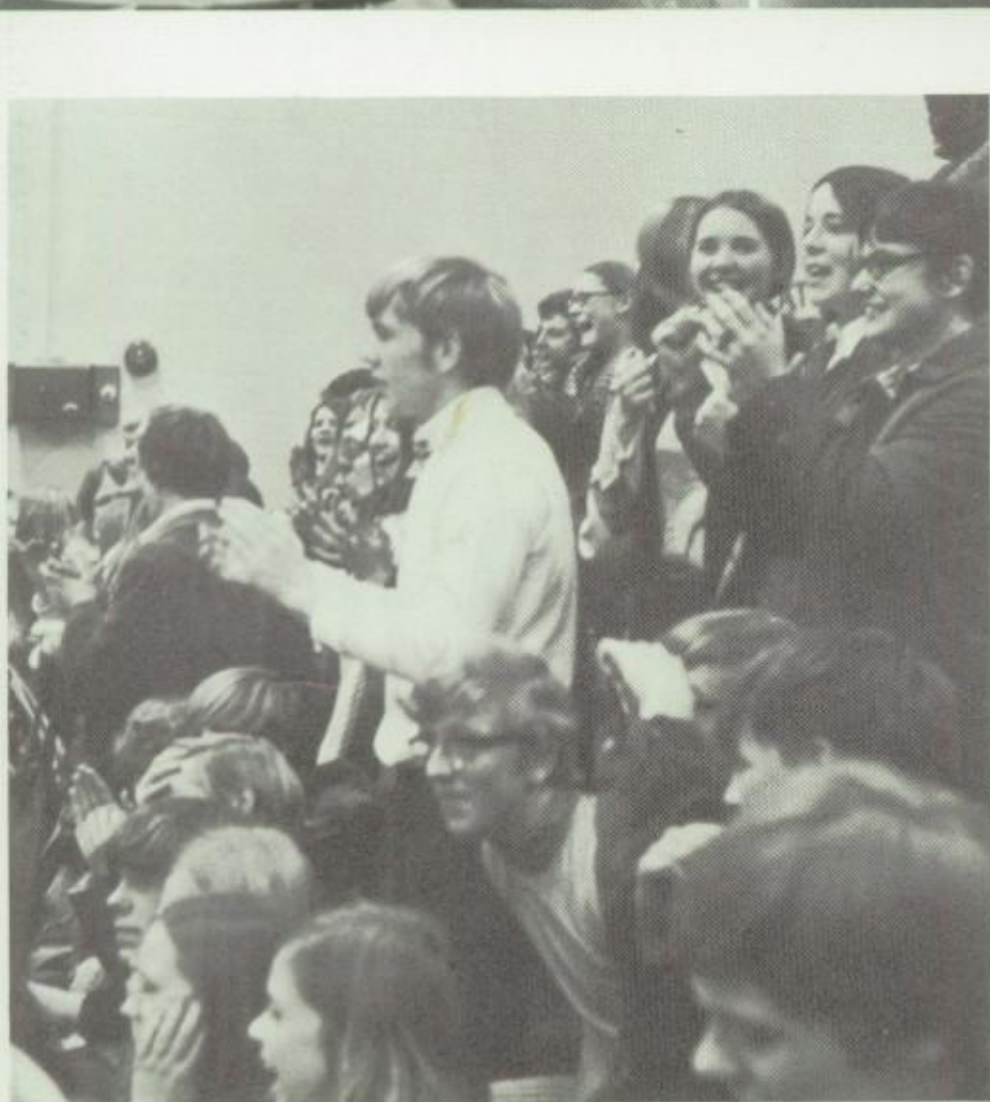

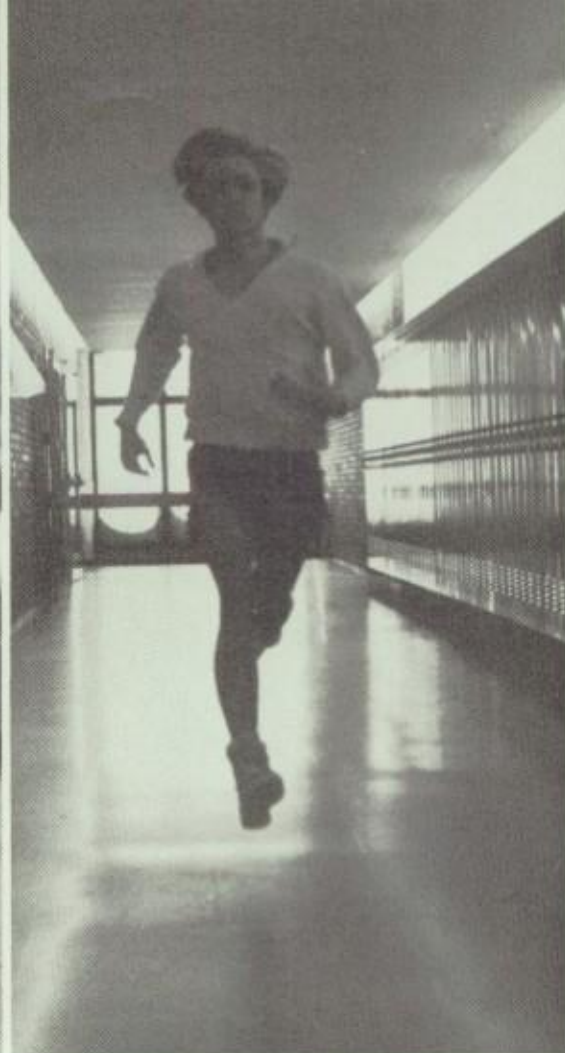

Bold

Lonely

and Scared

You were part of this.
Remember and be proud.

Somewhere

working alone after school

on sports or the play

or a thousand other things, maybe just walking through on your way out

you realize that the once hostile halls are like home and you belong to a class

and that class

belongs to you

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

Sinkers, Tankers, Stinkers, Prancers, Glancers & Dancers

This year's Senior Class Party proved to be successful. It was a night of fun, excitement, and laughter enjoyed by all. The volleyball, basketball court and swimming pool saw a lot of action as the number of kids increased throughout the night. For those with eager appetites, the concession stand was the place to go.

Individual casualties were Joan Langenbrunner, who skinned her knees and Jean Coldwell who ripped her britches.

The life of the party?

The scent of spruce, the frosty windows, the pine and rose corsages, the colorful formals, the bells of the madrigals, the music of Gary Brown combined to make this Snoball memorable for the one-hundred five couples who attended.

The sophomores who were in charge of tickets, coat check, corsages and serving did an excellent job. The originators of the Snoball from 25 years ago came back to chaperone, making it a very special evening.

The committee chairmen were Deven Felstrup, decorations; Sue Nelson, invitations; Mary Bernicke, food; Nancy Orlich, servers; Dierre Puumala, band; Gayle Hennum, chaperones.

Royalty '72

The 1971-1972 All-Athletic Homecoming King Jerry Sullivan and Queen Sue Nelson were announced at the pep fest on Friday, February 4, by Miss Steinhaus after a long day of anticipation experienced by both the candidates and the student body.

To start off homecoming week Publicity Day was held on Monday. Tuesday our school colors of Purple and White were worn with spirit. Wednesday was the traditional Lumberjack Day and convocation introducing the candidates under the MC'ing of Mary Bernicke and Debbie Price. There were tricycle races, boot toss, and a new game called potato race which brought uproarious laughter from the audience. Thursday was the day of voting with increasing momentum of suspenseful secrecy of who would be king and queen starting with the first vote cast. Practice was held at the Junior High on Thursday morning. Then Friday there was the pep fest and the final announcement. The whole week of activities could be termed a success on behalf of the Pep Club advised by Mr. George Gillespie.

On Saturday night, February 5, the traditional "March of the Brave", played by the CHS band, accompanied the majorettes and procession of candidates to the throne as mistresses of ceremonies Gayle Hennum and Kathy Angell introduced them. Then among the splendor and elegance of the royalty and their attendants, Bob Jokela and Patti Minogue, the past king and queen crowned their successors Jerry (Kip) Sullivan and Sue Nelson.

The Seniors Did a Good Job This Year

Look at what I have!

A carnival was brought to life as the Kiwanis manned their booths and were opened for business. Each person was given a set of tickets to go and play the games with, including; Panda Bear toss, dart game, spin the wheel, flip the cat, and bean bag; and received a prize worthy of their skills. Also among the games was the famed African Dip with Mr. Olsen, and Al Johnson as the targets for the evening.

The Post Prom committee was Headed by Deven Felstrup this year and backed up by a hard working crew of seniors and Kiwanians.

Four busloads of excited seniors left the Kid Day festivities to participate in the senior picnic which was held at Jay Cooke State Park's Oldenburg Point. A sunny sky added to the fun of the softball and football games and the rock climbing and made possible the swimming and sun bathing. After a long and ravenous wait, a picnic smorgasboard of meat loaf, potato salad, baked beans, and ice cream was served by the advisors with some hungry kids coming up for seconds and thirds. The day finally ended when advisors herded the students back onto the bus.

Baccalaureate Service, sponsored by the Cloquet Ministerial Association, was held in the Senior High School auditorium, with ministers from three churches presiding. Approximately one half of the senior class attended the service at which Pastor Bjorkman gave the invocation, Father Christensen gave the address to the graduating seniors, and Pastor Rasmussen gave the benediction. Other features of the program were a scripture reading by Ray Sherwood, a vocal solo by Mark Bjorkman, and an anthem, "Blessing, Glory, and Wisdom," by the Madrigals.

The Seniors Took a Trip Down Memory Lane

Approximately 210 seniors attended the senior banquet at the Hotel Duluth Ballroom where Keith Jakander served as the Tour Guide for the "Sentimental Journey." On behalf of the administration, Dr. Lewis Finch, chief engineer and Mr. Nick Olsen, Highway Patrol, spoke to the group. The traffic began as seven students spoke on the early streets of their lives, grade school. Speakers for these years were, Garfield Way, Laura Oinonen; Lincoln Circle, Keith Basney; Washington Avenue, Chuck Hoyum; Churchill Lane, Gayle Hennum; Sacred Heart Drive, Lori Unzen and Mary Bernicke; and Leach Road, Karla Sampson. The lanes merged as Terry Setterquist reminisced about the Junior Highway. Emergency stopping only was permitted by Bonnie Hage, as she drove the seniors down memory lane and Mr. John Buytaert, auto mechanic who presented community scholarships.

A divided highway was seen for Elpis and Dick as they presented a short speech on their stay in Cloquet. Keith presented class rings to them. Deven Felstrup summed up the senior year as Super Highway '72. Mr. Gray was chosen to speak on behalf of the faculty. The program was concluded with a medley of songs which was narrated by Ron Hagen.

Super Bowl, Super Jacks

The Cloquet Lumberjacks finished their regular playing season with a 9-1 record, losing only to Mpls. West Cowboys in the season opener. The Jacks defeated both Duluth East 16-14 and Denfeld 41-6 in a downpour of rain, to capture a berth in the Super Bowl.

Junior halfback, Dennis Carlson, carried the ball 122 times, gaining 766 yards with an average of 6.2 yards for each attempt. The leading pass receiver was John Palkie with 15 receptions. Both Greg Kujawa and Dave Huebner tallied three interceptions for the Jacks. Steve Smith led in scoring with nine touchdowns. Steve carried the ball 52 times for 300 yards and an average of 5.7 yards. Senior guard Jim Johanson was given a place on the Minnesota All-State Football Team.

The season was capped-off with a typical team effort victory over Hibbing in the Prep Super Bowl 14-8.

Let me warn you, I know karate.

The 1971-72 Cross Country team at CHS participated in five meets including the District. Under the coaching of Gary Himango, their enthusiasm was well noted. Sophomore runner Jeff Hunt placed first with a record time 12.19.5 at the Two Harbors Invitational and finished 2nd out of 90 runners at the AHL meet.

This year's senior lettermen Ken McCuskey, Jeff Hallback and John Tuttle will be graduating and leaving their places to be filled by the upcoming underclassmen. The underclassmen include Nathan Rasmussen, Brent Smith, Tim Hovis, Brian Bergeron, Mark Gray and Jeff Hunt. All of these underclass lettermen are returning to run in track this spring and "they should be in fantastic shape by next fall."

The Girl's Volleyball team got off to a fast start this year winning the first place trophy in the Northeast Invitational Tournament. This was followed by a second place position in the Superior tournament. The team this year consisted of three squads, each practicing very hard three nights a week.

Because of the great leadership of captain, Jean Schroeder, and Coach Monette Steinhaus, the volleyball team had a very successful season which undoubtedly will carry over next year when they go interscholastic.

The '71-'72 cagers under the guidance of first year coach Orin Schuler had a very successful season. Regular season play ended with a 14-6 record which included 2 wins over defending state champion Duluth Central and losses to Duluth East, Hermantown, Proctor, Superior Senior, and one to Brainerd in the finals of the Brainerd Invitational. This record gave the 'Jacks 2nd place in the Big Ten and No. 1 seeding in the District 26 Class A Tournaments. Cloquet beat Cromwell and Carlton in the District quarter and semi-finals respectively and were favored to take the District Crown. Proctor, however had different ideas as they defeated the Lumberjacks by a score of 46-43.

All through the season the 'Jacks were a never-say-die team. With revenge in their eye for an early season loss, Cloquet took No. 1 ranked Duluth East into overtime. The final score was 71 to 69 in favor of East, but we came closer than any other atean team to beating the 'Hounds. Schuler's Supremes again showed their great team work in the District finals. The 'Jacks were trailing by 11 going into the 4th quarter, when led by Setterquist, Smith, and Johnson, they erupted for 14 points to Proctors 3 tying the game. Unfortunately the breaks weren't with us and the Rails won it from the free-throw line with 19 seconds left on the clock.

The eight senior players contributed much to the team in leadership and spirit. We had two of the best guards in the area in Keith "Guba" Johnson (who was also our leading scorer) and Steve "Stink" Smith both of whom were named to the District All-Tournament team. Terry Setterquist and Jimmy Johanson proved to be rough and tough on the boards, rebounding well for the 'Jacks. Also contributing much to the team were Frank Yetka, our long shooter, and Dave Huebner, Ross Nelson, and Steve "Crawley" Korby who came through when they were needed. Crawley added much to the team and fans in spirit and excitement. During the Morgan Park game Crawley came off the bench to score 12 points. After this game The Crawley Fan Club was formed and many times during the games fans would begin yelling for the coach to put him in.

The Class of '72 also takes with it the team managers Marc "Squirly" Anderson and Mark "Duck" Fairbairn. These two guys did a lot of behind the scenes work keeping score and helping keep the team spirit up. Both Squirly and Duck deserve much praise for a job well done.

Cloquet hosted the 1971-72 State Ski Meet at Pine Valley with a record number of schools entering. The Cloquet skiers participated in the jumping, cross-country, and slalom competition in the meet as District 26 champions.

Gene Schilling placed first in the state showing his outstanding ability in jumping. Mike Sobczak and Ross Johnson also outstanding jumpers attended the Junior National Ski Meet in Vermont placing tenth and thirteenth respectively. The fine jumping season was due to the excellent coaching of ex-Olympic jumper, Joe Nowak.

The slalom events were held on the first day of competition at Mont du Lac in Duluth. Despite spills taken by the slalom team the Jacks came back the next day through jumping and cross-country to place fourth. All of the slalom members are underclassmen and will be returning as an experienced team.

Mike Marciniak and assistant Dave Sylvester coached a young cross-country team this year. All of them will be back next year with the exception of senior Rick Bradford who was unable to ski this season because of illness.

The 1971-72 ski team was honored on April 14 at a Ski Appreciation Dinner sponsored by the student council. Bubby Johnson presided as master of ceremonies. Those who attended included alumni from fourteen years ago when Joe Nowak first became CHS coach.

A good team is predicted for next year with only Gene Schilling, Mike Sobczak, and Rick Bradford being lost through graduation.

The '71-'72 Season Proves to Be

For the 1971-72 hockey team coached by Bill Kennedy, it was a season of achievement and excitement, in which it compiled a 14-6 regular season record, the best a Cloquet hockey team has ever done. There were three overtime games, all won by the Jacks. An important game for our men to win was the Superior game, in which Cloquet totally outskated and outscored Superior 4-1. There was also the late-season thriller when our Purple Gang toppled Central 3-2.

In the District 26 tournaments, Cloquet placed third, and Rick Wahtera and Steve Oakes were named to the all tournament team. The Jacks' hopes for further tournament action were ended by top-ranked International Falls in the first game of the regional tournament by a score of 5-1.

Seniors who contributed leadership and spirit to the team in addition superb playing are Scott Hambly, Greg Kujawa, Mark Milberger, Jerry Sullivan, and Rick Wahtera. Many talented underclassmen are returning, so prospects for next year look bright.

Additional improvements were made to the Pine Valley Ice Shelter this year which probably contributed to the many capacity and near-capacity crowds at the games. The shelter has made it possible for the boys to get more practice time and will be instrumental in helping them become a top area hockey power.

Go get 'em Watts.

The Girls' Team Placed Second in State

Senior shooters Kathy and Burt with Coach Mr. Stapleton.

For the 1971-72 rifle team it was a fairly successful year. The team was coached by John Stapleton who has guided more than his share of teams to state championships.

The boy's high school team compiled the best total at the state match, scoring 1436. The boys on this team were Don Sparring, Neil Sunnaborg, Mark Brown and Tom Ferguson. These boys were all sophomores and will be back next year to shoot. Burt Laine, Ross Wilson, and Bob Minogue competed as a team in another shooting category, but did not place.

The girls' team had their three year winning streak napped in state competition, placing second to Rochester. The girls rounding out this team were Beth Potratz, Kathy Angell, Jill Kokkonen, and Dawn Luoma. In individual competition, Jill placed second and Beth third. Jill and Kathy punched out perfect 100 in prone this year and Beth set a record with a 99 in sitting.

What's the score?

The Lumberjacks captured the second place position in the District Swim Meet after a hard fought battle with the number one team — Duluth East. Cloquet won the 200 individual medly by Herb Peterson, 400 free style by Scot Milberger and 100 breast stroke by Gary McCuskey.

In regular season play, they also ended up in second position with a 12 wins and two loss record. Record breakers for the year were Herb Peterson in the 200 individual medly, Scot Milberger in the 400 free style, and the relay team consisting of Dennis Ehrman, Herb Peterson, Randy Yrajanson, and John Palkie.

Next year they are looking foreward to the same or an even better season as they will be losing only four seniors. They are Rick Hein, Ken McCuskey, John Tuttle, and Tim Furey.

Russ

After a very successful season of matches this spring, the Cloquet golfers fell to tough Duluth East in the district tournaments. Up until that disappointing day, the 'Jacks had won thirty matches, lost only nine, and had one tie-that with East.

Coach Gerlach's stars were senior Russ Peil, sophomore Mike Rosen, and freshman Rick Barr. Other seniors on the squad were Terry Lindner, Dave Mathers, Gary Pastika, and Tim Schueppert.

With four lettermen back, Rick Peil and Paul Mathers in addition to Rosen and Barr, the Cloquet team should be strong again next year.

The Lumberjack Baseball team saw only three losses for their regular season play. Coaches Jerry Erickson and Gary Himango led the team to a 6-3 loss for the season and a district 26 championship. The three losses were to Hermantown, Central and East in regular season games.

At the district semi-finals, Cloquet beat East 2-1 to win a berth at the finals. The final game for the District championship was played on June 1 at Wade Stadium. The Jacks won the game 5-2 with a double play in the seventh inning.

Tennis Team Knows What Its All About

Strength and depth could describe the tennis team this year. Coach Dolan had for his team four returning lettermen plus a surplus of boys. The seniors this year were Ray Sherwood, 1st singles; Brian Bonham, 2nd singles; Sue Stillwell, 1st singles; Cathie Stewart, 2nd singles; and Gayle Hennum, doubles. The record for the year was 3 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie. Besides the regular matches they played Aurora-Hoyt Lakes and Hibbing. There were five girls and eight boys which had been the most boys ever in the history of tennis in Cloquet.

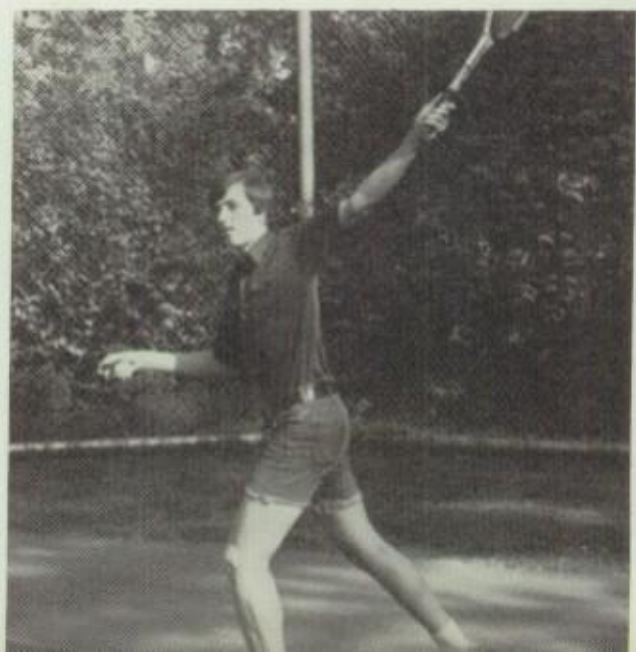

In district play on May 22, the team placed fourth and only one point behind third place Proctor. The doubles, 1st singles girls and boys made it to semi-final play. Next year the team will go far with the return of the many junior boys.

Tracksters Work Hard Without a Doubt

The 1972 track team competed in many meets this year, but failed to place high enough to qualify anyone for the state meet. Keith Basney was the outstanding individual this year running the 100-220. Other individuals who showed promise were Ed Graulis in the 100-220 and Mark Milberger in the shot-put.

Head Coach, Leonard Anderson and assistant coaches, Gary Welton, Jim Zak, and Don Hanson were instrumental in the preparations for the meets held in Cloquet. Among those meets were the Jaycees Invitational and the subdistricts which were on May 26.

The Red Coats Invade CHS Activities.

The Hospitality Club members attended many school functions this year to hand out programs, sell tickets, and show people to their seats. Advisor for the Usherettes for the 1971-1972 school year was Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson who scheduled the girls for workin time and assigned them their traditional red blazers. The outfits consisted of red blazers, white blouses and navy blue skirts.

Chosen for their personality and charm, these girls ushered at choir, band, and orchestra concerts; school-sponsored plays; home basketball games and parent-teacher conferences.

Our Pep Club Had a Busy Year

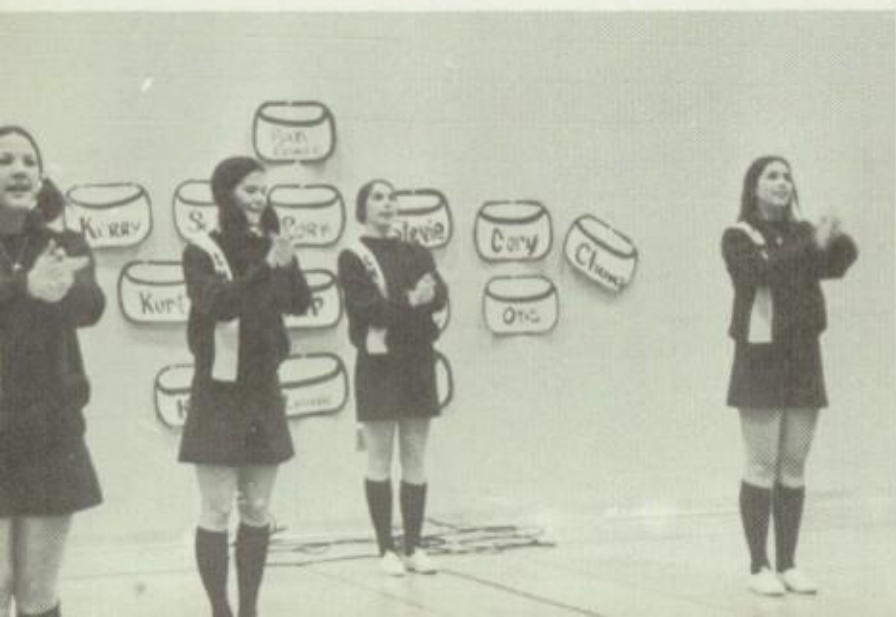

Officers: June MacConnachie (Vice President); Joan Langenbrunner, (President); and Brenda Bassett (Secretary Treasurer)

Spirit was reborn in CHS this year due to a very active and successful Pep Club. President Joan Langenbrunner led the group of hard working members in making posters to help build spirit throughout the school.

Pep Club sponsored fan filled rooter buses to football games and basketball games. They held a Parent's Night for football, basketball, and hockey. A team picture was taken and a miniature was given to each parent. The pep club did an excellent job making homecoming a success. Members sold buttons to make it possible for fans to go to out of town games at a reduced rate.

The Hard Working '71-72 White Pine Staff

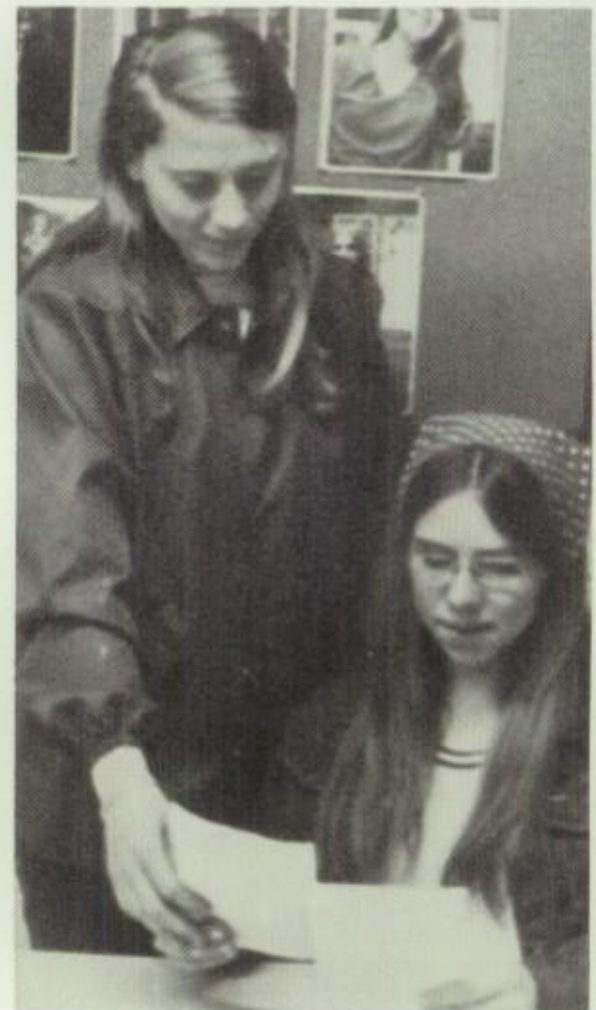

Editor Nancy

The 1971-1972 White Pine staff was a very dedicated and hard working crew. With Nancy Orlich at the head as editor, the staff overwent hurdles such as getting senior pictures turned in, typing and writing stories, and identifying of people. Sales this year was headed by Gayle Hennum who did an excellent job. Sales not only involved the selling of books, but also the billing for the pages for athletics and clubs. The other part of the team were Lois Johnson and Pat Dunphy who sold advertising. They contacted all the businessmen in Cloquet and the surrounding area to sell advertising for the book. This year they collected a record amount. Jane Hendrickson with her artistic ability created the cover for the book. Many of the memorable moments of this year were captured in the student life section of this book done by Doreen Sarette and Burton Laine.

Room D-101 saw a lot of action on weekends and holidays with staff members putting in extra time to meet deadlines.

The Journalism 1 Class and Its Dedicated Few

The Journalism 1 class, with the assistance of advisor George Gillespie and editor Joyce Bolme, produced six issues of the 1971-1972 Pine Needle. The staff worked hard writing, typing, proofreading and laying out the stories before the paper could go to press. Each issue had four page editors that rotated or changed from issue to issue.

The paper strived to keep the students informed of events and activities, as well as present literary works of the students. Reviews, editorials, sports, and feature stories were regular columns in the Pine Needle. The editor of the Pine Needle for the 1972-1973 school year will be Rose Chick.

The Band Is on Top With Classical and Pop.

Gigi and Zane

The Cloquet Senior High all marching band, directed by Zane Gray, consists of 100 active members. The band practices four days of every cycle plus additional individual sectionals which meet two days of the cycle in preparation for their fall and spring concerts. In performance they played such selections as "NATIONAL EMBLEM" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic" at the Fall Concert followed by "Jubilance and Morgen "Tommorrow" at the Spring Concert.

The band had solos and ensembles which played in the district and state contest from every section of the band. In every section we received superior ratings from the judges. The Concert Band also received superior ratings from all four of the judges.

The school year wouldn't have been a success without the effort and utmost ability in talent contributed by the all Lumberjack Marching Band.

"Banquet" was the key word for the '71-72 String Ensemble. Sheryl Salmi served as leader of the group which played for a great number of civic banquets throughout the year—including the hamber of Commerce Banquet and The Athletic Banquet. They also played for the District Republican Convention on May 20, at the Radisson Duluth Hotel. A banquet for the group was held at the Village Inn on May 22, to finish off the year.

Voices Raised in Songs We Admire

The Cloquet vocal music groups under the direction of Mr. Donald Schroeder, presented two well-directed senior high concerts for the 1971-72 school year. At the Christmas Concert December 16, the mixed choir sang the traditional "Twas the Night Before Christmas" along with such other selections as "Hodie Christus Natus Est", and "Birthday Greeting" by Kodaly. Throughout the Christmas season, the madrigals spread cheer and good tidings, singing and ringing their bells for the various clubs and organizations around town. Highlighting their season on December 5, was a performance given at the annual Duluth Christmas Pageant.

An excellent Spring Concert performance by the choir April 20, entertained a large audience with such difficult numbers as "Ye Are Not of the Flesh" by Bach, and "Prayers of Steel" by Christianson, plus several others. Singing such selections as "Now is the Month of Maying," and "Sweet Love Doth Now Invite", the madrigals presented a convincing display of their talents. This group ended their singing performances for the year on April 18, at the St. Paul Hilton for an Innovation Fair sponsored by the State Department of Education.

This year Cloquet made an excellent showing in the District music contest as all entries received superior ratings.

Section leaders this year were Dan Christenson, first bass; Mark Bjorkman, second bass; Ron Hagen, tenor; Alto, Jo Ann Schmidt; second soprano, Brenda Pollak; and first soprano, Beth Portratz.

In November Hobbit Made the Scene

Mysterious Mirkwood.

What'd you say, Gandalf?

Dwarfs, elves, goblins, trolls, spiders, and dragons were brought to life in this year's all school play "The Hobbit" by J.R.R. Tolkien. Directed by Charles McClintic, the play transported children from 8 to 80 into a warm, wonderful world of make believe.

The story deals with a Hobbit named Bilbo Baggins (Bruce McCullough) whose life is upset when Gandalf (Kim Krzenski), the great wizard, brings 13 dwarfs led by Thorin Oakenshield (Ken Gustafson) to his home at Bag's End. Despite his protests Bilbo is dragged along on an adventure to the foot of the Lonely Mountain to slay the dragon Smaug. Together they travel through Mirkwood Forest and battle Elves, Trolls, Spiders, Goblins, and Gollum (Eric Christensen) before reaching their goal.

Original music for the show was written by C.H.S. vocal director Donald Schroeder. Student director Lori Unzen had a very efficient crew under her which included Sue Stillwell, props; Carol Atwood, costumes; Joyce Bolme, make-up; Dierre Puumala, programs and publicity; Mike Niemi, lights.

Man of La Mancha Was Best by Far

The Lord of LaMancha and friend

This year's musical, Man of LaMancha, brought tears to the eyes of many and touched the hearts of all those who saw the show. The size of the cast (28 people) enabled them to work more closely and relate to each other better. Their impossible dream has been carried on.

The play deals with Miguel de Cervantes, Kim Krzenski and his mad knight Don Quixote's faithful squire Sancho (Duane Panger) who follows him just because he likes him. A very important part of Quixote's dream is a woman called Aldonza (Dawn Luoma) whom he meets in an inn (which he calls a castle). He sees her as his lady Dulcinea and eventually changes her life drastically.

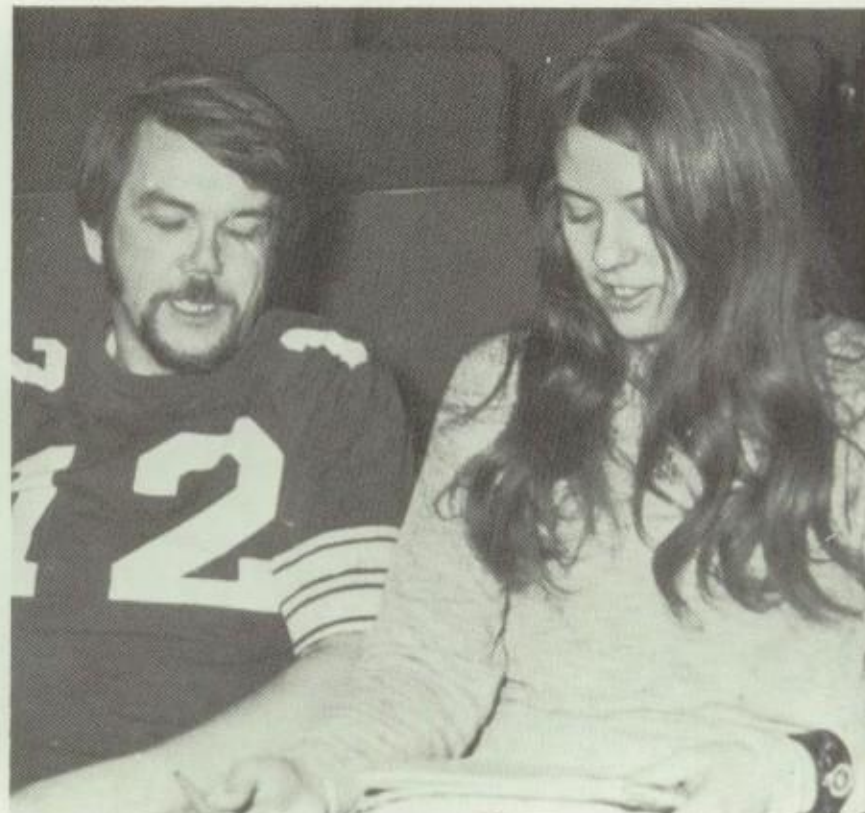

Andy Hall did a great job directing the orchestra this year. Because some of the sheet music for the instruments didn't come, Andy had to write it himself. The end result added much to the success of La Mancha.

Leading the backstage crew were student director Lori Unzen, and stage manager Diane Blaisus. They did a beautiful job of organizing the committee heads including Patty Barnes, props; Diane Blaisus, costumes; Dan Christensen, lights; Bob Purcell, stage crew; Rose Chick, publicity; Brenda Pollack, make-up; and Laurel Grover, programs.

Also helping to make the play a success were Mrs. Fields who was in charge of tickets, and Mr. Schroeder who helped the actors with their singing.

Jury Reform Topic for Debators

The Cloquet debate team participated in five meets at Hibbing, Superior State, Duluth Central, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis and Silver Bay under the direction of Mr. Trolander. They placed high in most competitions including a fifth place at Superior State. The topic for this year's debators was, Resolved: that the jury system in the United States should be significantly changed.

The procedure for the debators was changed this year from the traditional affirmative and negative teams to the single team effort where they take the negative side for the first part of the year and affirmative stand for the second half.

Because junior debators Kathi Johnson and Pat Coldwell, as well as, sophomore debators Bruce Diesen, Kathy Hiti, Mike Port and Brian Norton will be returning next year, the chances for a good upcoming season are great.

Our Baseball Team Finished Great

Regional win

Third in the state was the honor won by our baseball team as they just kept winning in the tournaments. Only the champion Richfield team was able to defeat us in a tough 2-0 game.

Beginning with the sweet 2-1 win over East in the district finals, the Jacks went on to eliminate Eveleth and Greenway in the regionals and top Marshall in the opening round of the state in St. Paul. After losing to the eventual state champs, Coach Erickson's boys bounced back to beat a tough Bemidji team in extra innings for the third place trophy.

Rick Wahtera and Keith Johnson were named to the all tournament team and Frank Yetka posted two wins for the team. Despite the distance, there was a good showing of fans at all three games.

Our two A.F.S. students this year came from widely separated parts of the world. Elpis Thrasyvoulou lives in Cyprus and Ricardo Bittencourt came to us from Brazil. In their year in Cloquet, both have lived with two families, both have mastered English (and slang), both have acquired a taste for American food and music and movies and even our Cloquet climate.

Both of these young people have made an impression on all who have come to know them. At the senior banquet they said farewell and expressed their thanks. Keith gave each of them a C.H.S. 1972 class ring and made them truly a part of our senior class.

In addition to the activities presented to the CHS student body, Student Council also obtained a Student body, Student Room, bulletin board, suggestion box and adopted a reorganizing plan that will be put into affect next year.

"Snoopy and the Gang" was this year's theme for the annual synchronized swimming show. The girls selected their own musical numbers and choreographed them to themes of "Happiness Is."

The soloists this year were Joan Crewson and Sue Nelson, both senior members of synchronized. They swam to "You've Got a Friend," and "Love is Blue," respectively. The routines were perfect in style and grace and displayed the abilities of the two soloists. Mistress of ceremonies was Jan Johnson who played the part of Snoopy in the show. Wendy Wolf and Sue Stillwell were vocalists for intermission.

Pensive by Burt.

These three young men deserve a page in this book for which they have done so much. We take perhaps three times as many pictures as are in the book, print probably two thirds of what we take, and discard half of what we print. Count the pictures in this book and begin to appreciate the efforts of this trio.

Burt Laine did most of the photos for the opening section of this book, Mark was especially active in the fall before basketball made its demands. Randy was always available.

Mr. Pangerl was advisor for this years Distributive Ed. program. Cooperative Distributive Education is a program of instruction and training to prepare students for entry to jobs in areas of marketing, such as storing, transporting, insuring, wholesaling, retailing, and servicing. The student-trainee acquires general skills and knowledge applicable to all distributive occupations and especially to the distributive training station where he is placed.

Certain aspects of the student's adjustment to a job are best learned in the distributive education classroom. Here he learns salesmanship, human relations, display techniques, advertising techniques, and other distributive skills in addition to his regular subjects.

This years Trade and Industrial Cooperative Training Program, under the guidance of Mr. Chinnock offered seventeen students training and experience in skilled trades and technical occupations.

Industrial Arts furnishes excellent pre-employment and exploratory experience to students before they are ready to enroll in the "T. and I." program. The student is given the opportunity to use industrial equipment, materials, and processes as well as having the benefit of working with the best qualified people in his chosen occupation.

Such areas as health and safety, employer-employee relations, employee responsibilities, occupational vocabulary, and personality development are studied as a group.

Banquet Honors Parents and Trainers

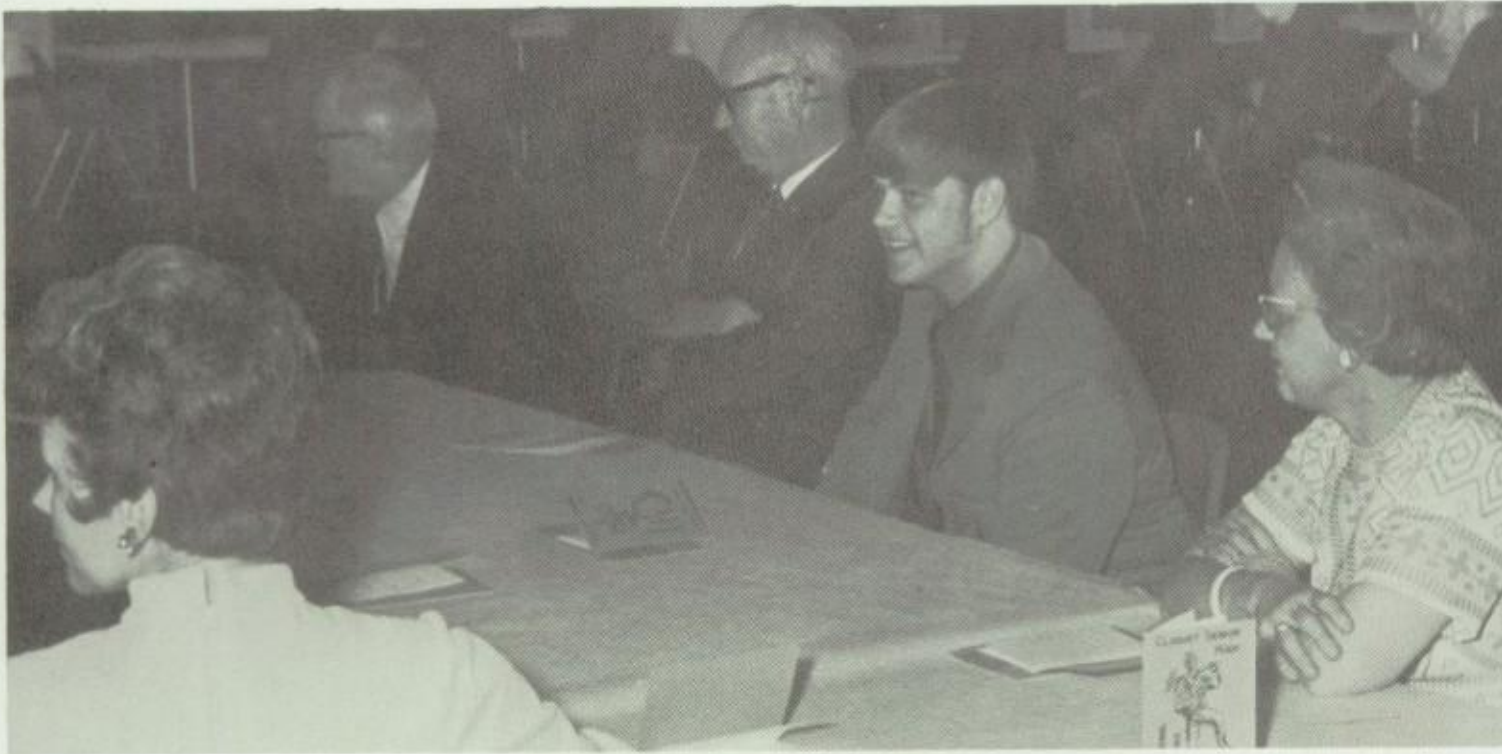

The Vocational Banquet was held in the high school cafeteria on Wednesday, May 3. Trainees hosted the party which honored parents, trainers, and some faculty members.

Al Beise was master of ceremonies and spoke briefly about the program. The high point of the evening was the showing of slides of every student on the job as Brian Koski narrated. Every student introduced his parents and trainer.

The Vocational Club had dues and the seniors pay for their senior activities costs through the club. Senior Banquet, Kid Day, Caps and Gowns, and other class expenses do not fall so heavily on members of this group because they budget the expenses over the year.

The C.O.E.A. under the direction of Mr. Schow, consisted of sixteen members. In the office education classroom, the young man or woman student develops skills and acquires knowledge applicable to all office occupations. The cooperating on the job training stations, provided by community employers, furnish an opportunity for the students to exercise these skills in a real situation. In the school's office-related class, such units as "Personality", "Employer-Employee Relations", "Learning the Job", "The Worker and Taxes", and "Unions" are studied.

The business community provides a laboratory in which the student practices the skills acquired in the classroom. The trainees also acquire additional skills and knowledge which can only be given in a real employment situation.

School Board Makes Policies and Acts on Issues.

Mr. VonFisher visits our school.

The members of the board of education are dedicated individuals who are constantly searching for ideas that are contemporary and refreshing. They work hard to reform and improve our public schools. With other administrative officials, they are instrumental in the advancement of education in Cloquet.

In addition, the board members are actively concerned about the people of Cloquet. While they are involved in many community activities, they still find time to attend our stage productions and concerts, support our athletic events, and visit with faculty and students. They share our frustrations and applaud our successes.

How's the yearbook coming, girls?

Dr. Finch and J.P. work on calendar.

Looking things over.

Dr. Lewis Finch is an energetic man who is truly involved with the education of Cloquet's young people. His interest stretches beyond his administrative duties as superintendent of schools. Despite his busy schedule, he can often be seen addressing groups of parents or visiting with students in the halls. He is also present at many school functions, such as our concerts, plays, and sports events, and he views these activities with enthusiasm.

A man of action, Superintendent Finch has devised many innovations. Among his conceptions are home visitations and alternate-Wednesday morning in-service days. The changes he has created mark the Cloquet school system as inventive and progressive.

Master Controller, Principal Nick Olsen

Mr. Olsen is the commander of the complex machinery which composes Cloquet High School. He is the captain of the team made up of teachers, custodians, aides, secretaries, and cooks.

The fact that many students have never talked privately with Mr. Olsen is an indication that our school is running smoothly. By training inclination and intellect, Mr. Olsen is an innovator. He is not afraid to change that which he feels needs to be changed, but he retains that which he thinks is good.

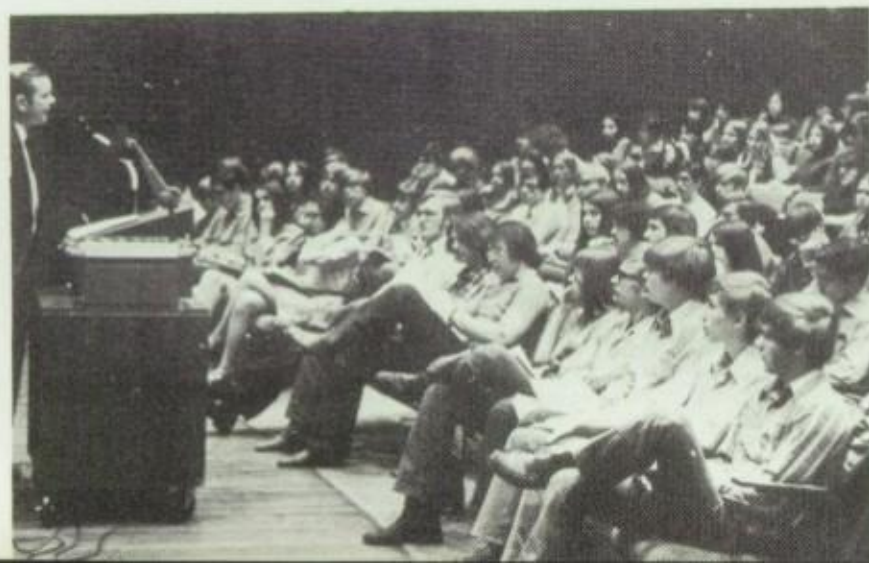

Under his leadership, the curriculum of Cloquet High School continues to change. The perfect educational system has not yet appeared, but we think Cloquet is in the lead in the race to reach that goal.

Assistant Principal Is a Friend to Many

Al Johnson, Assistant Principal
B.S. St. Cloud State
M. Ed. Wisconsin State

Mr. Johnson serves as both Assistant Principal and athletic director at C.H.S. As assistant principal, he is responsible for checking on students to make sure they have enough credits for graduation. Mr. Johnson also deals with many of the discipline problems and does most of the work with the school calendar of events.

"Big Al", as he is sometimes called, also serves many functions as athletic director. It is his job to schedule games, arrange for officials, and organize the Cloquet work crews. He is also in charge of the athletic budget, athletic awards, eligibility, and represents C.H.S. at the district meets.

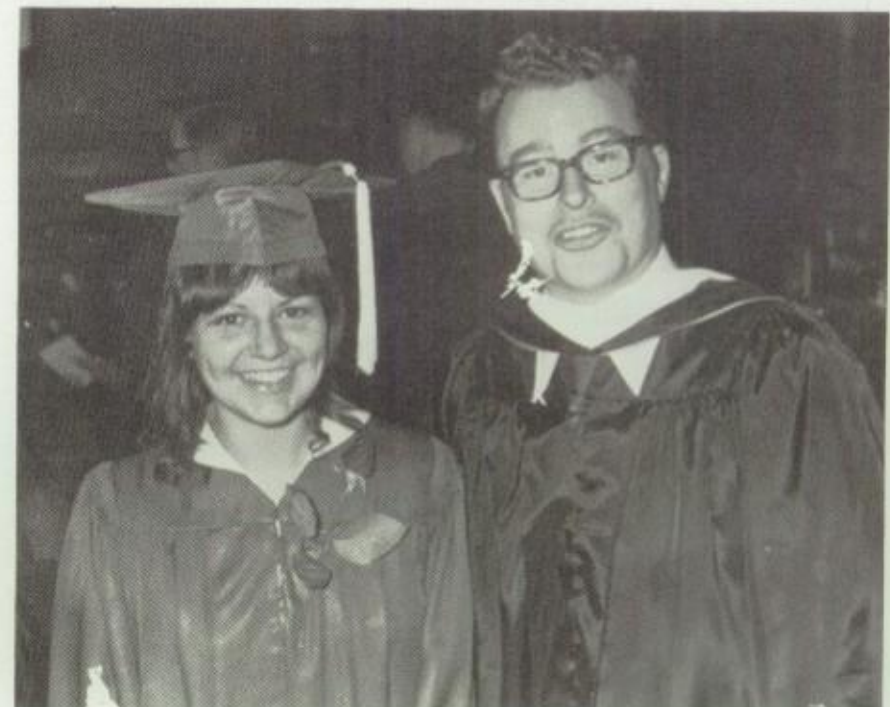

Mr. Johnson is kept very busy by both of these jobs, yet he still has time to get to know many of the students personally and listen to their problems.

Theories and Theorems Part of Math and Science Curriculum

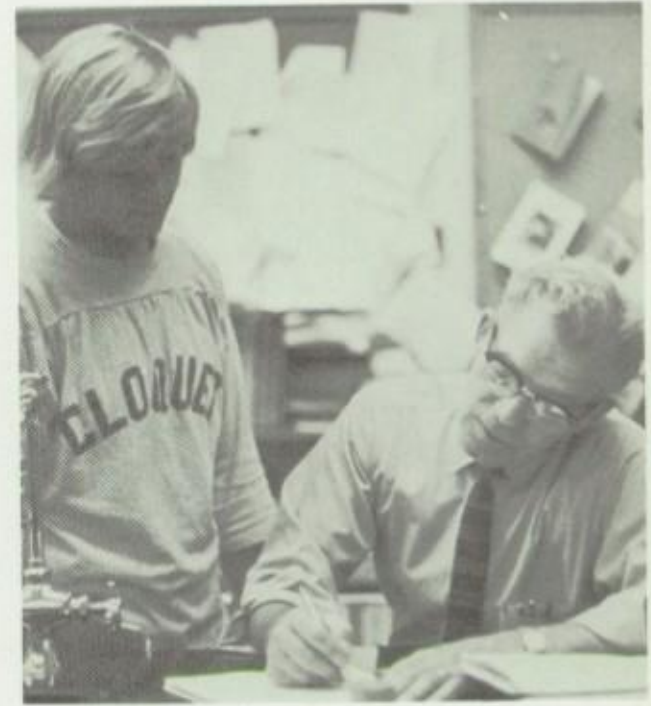

Thomas Kloskowski
B.A., U of Minn.; M.A., U of S.D.

The math and science department offered the traditional courses along with many new and innovative ones this year. Only one year of math and science courses were required of each student. Many quarter science courses were made available to sophomores, juniors and seniors, such as astronomy, and chemistry of cosmetology and snowmobile. Students excelling in certain areas of science were offered enriched courses like PSSC Physics and CHEM Study.

Geometry, Algebra II, Trigonometry and other related math courses were offered by the math department.

This year the students were urged to work at their own pace and complete units on their own. An individual study program was stressed by the teachers for students who expressed an interest or need.

The English Teachers Make Classes Practical

As Well As Fun.

The English department, as usual offered a variety of interesting courses and presented many methods for teaching English on the senior high school level. Some teachers endorsed the contract system that allowed the student to work at his own pace and in many cases finish the course in less time than was prescribed. Each student was still required to take a specified number of composition, literature, grammar and speech credits for graduation.

Mrs. Skoglund was the English teacher in the newly formed Life Center this year. She taught the students during their structured small groups.

The Social Studies department has continued its trend toward broader, more relevant courses. The staff, with its variety of opinions and innovative ideas, inspires the school, students, and sometimes even the entire community to higher achievements.

With athletic coaches Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Bartholdi, Mr. Schueler, and Mr. Gerlach, Student Council Advisor Mr. Pichotta, Mr. Lykins advisor to the Native American Club, and sophomore, junior, and senior class advisors on the staff, it is easy to see why and how such constant action is provoked.

This department offers everything from Family Living to Driver's Ed., college preparation to income taxes, Religions of Man to Russian History, and many courses in between. You will always find someone to talk to and learn from in the social office.

Useful Skills Taught in Industrial Education

Gerhardt Lutter B.S., Mankato State College

Industrial Education has given many students a wonderful opportunity to apply principles of mathematics and science in daily activities. Leathercraft, carpentry, electricity, welding, art metal, machine shop, woodworking, auto mechanics, small engines, and sheetmetal were offered during the nineteen-seventy two school year.

Seniors, if they so elect are allowed to go into the Cooperative Part-time Trade and Industrial Vocational Training Program to obtain on-the-job experience and training in industry.

Open to all CHS students are General Business and Typing. Juniors and Seniors continue to learn about the business world and skills necessary for employment by studying advanced typing, record keeping, shorthand, bookkeeping, and office procedure.

Fine Arts Stresses Individuality.

Zane Gray Ph. B., University of North Dakota

The Fine Arts Department at Cloquet has done a commendable job presenting courses such as music, art, drama, humanities and foreign languages to the students. These classes are all electives and are presented to enable the student to choose the area which interests him most.

One course, humanities, is offered to seniors only. The course is divided into art, music and philosophy small groups. The music section of Fine Arts is a combination of orchestra, band and choral groups. Drama, which has branched out to form the theater arts and repertory, provides the students who participate in the plays.

Specialization is Their Claim to Fame

Lawrence Urbanski B.S.S., St. Mary's College; M.A., U. of Minn.

There are a variety of jobs performed by the special teachers. Their duties range from counseling to nursing, to teaching. The physical education teachers introduced many new activities to the students. The home economics department not only taught cooking and sewing to the girls, but again this year had a Boy's Chef class. Keeping the students informed of college and job opportunities, as well as administering tests were the jobs of the counselors. The audio-visual director possessed a demanding job which required him to attend many activities to take charge of lighting and sound. The special education teacher's work is welcomed and recognized by everyone. Keeping us healthy and well-read are the duties of the nurse and librarian.

Caretakers of Our Creature Comforts

Head Custodian Roy Mattinen

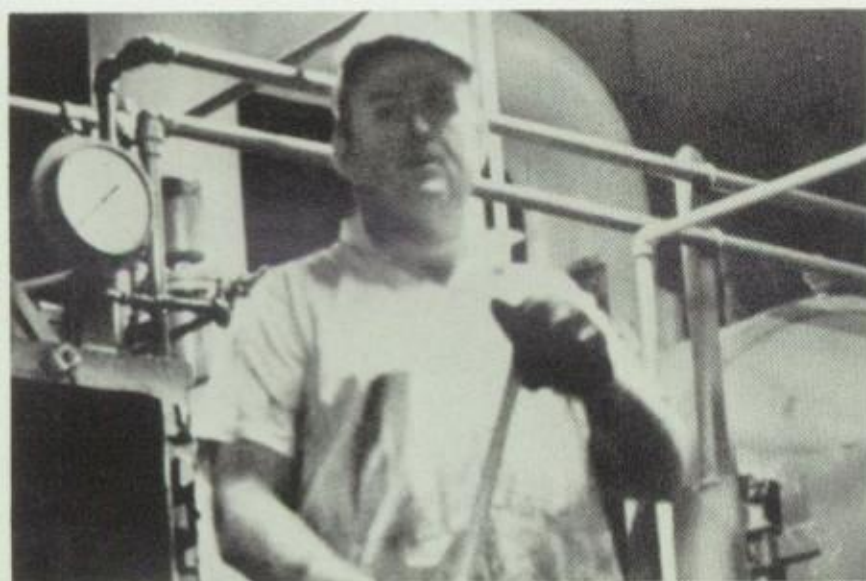

The people on this page may be the most important in the book, at least to the students. The cooks prepare the food which we eat every day, food which makes visitors to our school express envy over the variety and quality of our menus. Especially noteworthy are the breads and rolls baked every day in our own kitchen.

The custodians are literally masters of many trades. They keep our building clean, warm, and hospitable. They battle snow in the winter and mow our acres of lawn in summer. Some drive buses as well. Help in many ways is given by these dedicated men in making our extracurricular program a success; they scrounge for us, build for us, provide tools for us, and encourage us.

The White Pine is especially grateful to these people for their generosity in supporting our book.

The Secretaries and Aides, Everybody's Helpers

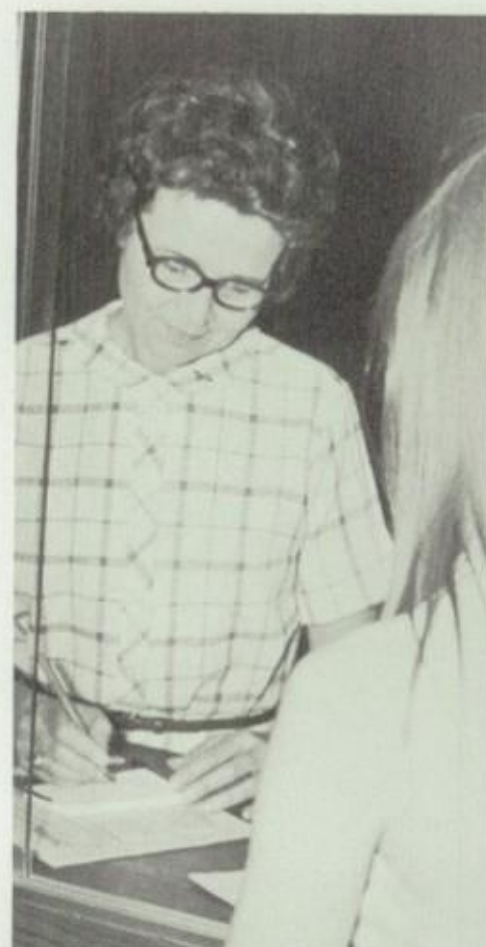

Ruth Johnson
Principal's Secretary

The secretaries who run the principal's office serve as the nerve center for our school. All calls into the school are handled by them, their voices come over the intercom, and they hand out passes and accept the excuses. Our bulletins, weekly and daily are prepared and distributed by these ladies. They collect the money for school activities, handle school supplies, and serve as secretaries to the principals. Ruth is secretary to Mr. Olson. Hazel is the business manager, and Phyllis is the receptionist.

In the counselor's office, Linda is responsible for grades, schedules, and acts as secretary to the counselors.

Most memorable of all is the fact that our secretarial staff is devoted to our school. They go to our games, plays, concerts and have more spirit' than lots of the students.

The Farewell Blues

This has been a very good year for me. Now, one week after graduation, the tricks of memory are being played on me. The good stays, grows, and shines more brightly; the bitter brew of failure goes down the drain.

The picture on this page is taken from the railing at the west end of the corridor between sections C & D. The work this time is for the post prom, but it could have been for other things, too, like hall decorations, or pep club slogans, or the Snoball, or ads for the sale of this book. These four and many more who worked to make the year go well deserve more thanks than they received from me or anyone.
